

SHARON BAPTIST CHURCH
HARVEST FESTIVAL

On Sunday, October 30 from 5-7pm, Sharon Baptist is hosting a Harvest Festival for the children of our church and the community. Activities will include: inflatables, games, food and a Trunk-or-Treat. Ages for the activities and the Trunk-or-Treat include all children through the 5th grade.

We need the help of our church family. We need donations of wrapped candies or treats for the Trunk-or-Treat. Baskets will be placed in the hallways for the next few Sundays for these items.

If you are interested in helping with the Harvest Festival, please call the church office at 938-7075 and leave your name with Cathy.

Kathy Matherly,
Children's Ministry Director

Food Dishes

If you or a family member have been so kind as to bring a covered dish for a grieving family, please check the Adult 6 coffee room cabinet. There are several dishes that have not yet been claimed. Your kindness, generosity, and thoughtfulness are deeply appreciated.

MOVIES WORTH SEEING

Courageous was released this past weekend; it is from the makers of Fireproof and Facing the Giants, and is their best yet. The Mighty Macs, a touching and inspiring "overcoming-all-odds" story, will be released October 21. The better films like these do at the box office, the more quality, family-friendly films will be made.

Ladies' Holiday Luncheon

We are excited about planning the Ladies' Holiday Luncheon for 2011. The luncheon is scheduled for the afternoon of November 12, 2011. We are seeking 10-12 women who are interested in sponsoring a table at the luncheon. Please call Debbie Tapp at 938-0407 or the church office by October 22 if you would like to sponsor a table.
